Lots of new ETFs. Precious few good ideas.

If your clients are interested in new ideas for indexing, consider talking to them about Rydex Equal Weight S&P 500 ETF (RSP).

Unlike a cap-weighted fund, which can be concentrated in the largest stocks, RSP provides equal exposure across the entire index. RSP offers increased diversification¹ and systematic rebalancing.

More important, this approach reduces bias towards the largest companies in an index. The result? Small company stocks may help
