

THE LONDON COMPANY

INVESTMENT COUNSEL

For Immediate Release

Wall Street Journal “Category Kings” (October 31, 2011)

The Touchstone Small Cap Core Fund, a fund which The London Company sub-advises, was recently recognized as a leader in the Small Cap Core funds category and nominated by The Wall Street Journal’s Quarterly Mutual Fund Review as a “Category King”. The fund was ranked 5th best performing fund among 708 funds in its category for the one-year time period, as of October 31, 2011. Touchstone Small Cap Core Fund has returned over 15.38 percent in the past twelve months versus 7.31 percent for the category average. The Wall Street Journal’s Category Kings recognizes funds ranked in the top 10 of their respective Lipper (a Reuters company that supplies mutual fund information, analytical tools and commentary) mutual fund categories, ranked by year-to-date total returns (changes in net asset values with reinvested distributions) as of month-end. Category Kings is also published on calendar quarters using different performance time periods. Past performance is no guarantee of future results.

About The London Company

The London Company is a registered investment advisor based in Richmond, Virginia. The firm specializes in equity, income equity, small cap, small-mid cap and concentrated portfolio management services, managing $2.3 billion in assets for institutional and high net worth individuals. The investment team has more than three decades of experience in managing a focused, conservative investment process that has produced a consistent performance record with low downside risk. For more information about The London Company, please visit www.tlcadvisory.com.

#